Layout / Interior

The Sealine 328 Sovereign incorporates enviable accommodation in three cabins furnished to a high standard and complimented by a tasteful use of natural woods synonymous with the Sealine Marque. Saloon: The saloon benefits from a 1.89 Metre headroom and incorporates a U-Shaped seating area with the provision for a double berth. There is a comprehensive galley with a variety of storage cupboards and drawers for all the items necessary for preparing meals on board. Forward Master Cabin: This cabin benefits from a double berth with storage lockers, wardrobe, vanity unit and access to the heads as an ensuite to maintain privacy when staying on board. Aft Cabin: The separate aft cabin has 2 berths and includes storage lockers, hanging space and vanity unit. There is also a seating and changing area to port with further storage space.

Interior Colours: This example of the Sealine 328 Sovereign is finished in a traditional Sealine Pink fabric selection. The vessel continues the theme throughout the accommodation areas and has matching curtains and contrasting creme vinyl side and headlining to finish the overall look. All cabinetry below is finished in a natural light oak wood with all light and switch and door furniture finished in a traditional brass look.

Cockpit: Access to the cockpit on the Sealine 328 Sovereign is via integral bathing platform and transom access door. The large cockpit has seating for around 8 people which can be arranged as a sunbathing area. The helm position incorporates full engine instrumentation, Navigation equipment and VHF. There is a fibreglass radar arch, full cockpit canopy and cockpit lighting. The cockpit is finished in a beige vinyl upholstery with blue piping and matching panels. The cockpit floor is finished in a non slip GRP finish and the cockpit covers are finished in a classic Navy sunbrella material.
